[8~10] Read and answer each question.

We can see many different colors everywhere. Each color can give us different feelings.

Usually, fast food restaurant signs are red. Many supermarkets have red signs. We feel hungry when we see red. So, many food companies have red signs.

How about blue? Blue does not make us hungry. There is no blue food in nature. It is the color of water and the sky. So blue puts us in a good mood. We can feel relaxed when we see blue. Blue is also a cool color. So we see blue a lot in summer.

Yellow is a strong color. It is bright, like the sun. Yellow is the color of the sun, lemons, and bananas. It gives people energy. It can also make people happy.

8. What is this reading about?

- ① fast food restaurants ② colors and feelings ③ favorite colors for men ④ color and foods

9. Match the color with what we can say
